Policy Approaches to Campus Mental Health: A Scan of Current Practice

Join us for the next webinar in the “Ask the Experts” series on Wednesday, November 26, 2014, from 1:00 to 2:00 pm (EST)!

This FREE webinar will provide:

- An overview of a recently developed mental health policy framework background paper;
- Some of the realistic challenges to applying a mental health policy lens within a smaller college setting;
- A look at how University of British Columbia involves students in the policy development process;
- An update on the movement to reflect mental health promotion principles in campus policy at Simon Fraser University.
